WHY AUSTRALIA?

Australia is known globally as one of the world's most diverse and welcoming countries. Australia is the biggest island in the world, the sixth biggest country in the world in land area, and the only nation to govern an entire continent. The island continent is almost as big as the USA but has a population of only 25.69 million (2021) people (most of whom live within 24 kilometers of the coast). Australia's coastline stretches almost 50,000 kilometers and has more beaches (over 10,000) than any other country. Inland, there are vast areas of semi-arid and desert land. Many people around the world know Australia for being a beautiful country but we also enjoy worldclass quality of living, with six of our cities in the top 40 cities in the world. Our education system is among the world's best with safe, friendly communities from coast to coast.

Experience a cutting-edge Australian education and get ready for a world of learning and career opportunities in a safe, welcoming environment. HEALTH MATTERS

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

It is essential for you to maintain the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the duration of your student visa. Carry it on you at all times. Your insurance covers visits to a General Practitioner (GP) or a Specialist, hospital stay, and ambulance services.

For any health issues, unless it is an emergency, the first point of contact is a GP. They will be able to advise you on treatment for common illnesses, as well as refer you to a Specialist and issue you with a Medical Certificate if you require one.

N.B. Please check with your insurance provider which services are included in your OSHC policy.

Emergency

If you feel that you can't wait and require immediate medical assistance, dial 000 (triple zero) and request an Ambulance.

WORKING WHILE YOU STUDY

From 1 July 2023, student visa holders can work no more than 48 hours a fortnight while studying. For more information see work restrictions for student visa holders.

It is illegal to work for cash in Australia. You are required to have a TFN (Tax File Number) to be paid. The minimum hourly rate in Australia is $23.23 per hour or $882.80 per week. It is essential for you to get an ABN (Australian Business Number) to work as a contractor and/or operate your own business. Your working rights are governed by Australian Law and Industry Unions. With any complaints or issues, you can approach the Student Ombudsman, Fair Work Ombudsman, Council of International Students, and/or the relevant Union.

BANKING

Opening a local bank account is easy for overseas visitors provided it's done within six weeks of arrival. Simply present your passport and provide the bank with a postal address, and they'll open the account and send you an ATM card. After six weeks you need to provide more identification (ID), such as a passport, a birth certificate, or an international driving license with photo. You can use your overseas debit or credit card to pay for services, however, to avoid issues with currency conversion, we recommend to open an account with a local bank.

CURRENCY & EXCHANGING MONEY

Australia's currency is the Australian dollar, made up of 100 cents. There are 5c, 10c, 20c, 50c, $1 and $2 coins, and $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100 notes. Prices are often marked in single cents and then rounded to the nearest 5c when you pay.

Changing foreign currency or Travelers Cheque is usually not a problem at banks or at licensed money-changers, such as Travelex or Amex.

TAXES & REFUNDS

All workers in Australia are required to pay taxes (even if you are on a Student Visa). For information on tax rates, please visit the official website of Australian Taxation Office <https://www.ato.gov.au/Rates/Individual-income-tax-rates/>

Usually, if you are employed on a TFN, your employer looks after your taxes. However, with an ABN you are required to pay taxes yourself.

There is a tax-free threshold, meaning, if your annual income is less than AUD 18,200, you do not have to pay any tax. Even if you are not required to pay any tax, you are required to lodge your tax declaration. The financial year in Australia starts on 1st July. You are required to submit your tax declaration from 1st July to 31st October of the new financial year. Your employer does not submit the declaration for you, it is strictly your responsibility. A tax accountant can assist you, however, the cost for their services starts around AUD 100.

GST

Any overpaid tax will be returned to you after your declaration is processed. You can claim some of your expenditure, such as equipment used for work purposes, on tax and will be required to pay less or will be entitled to a bigger tax return. The Goods and Services Tax (GST) is a flat 10% tax on all goods and services – accommodation, eating out, transport, books, furniture, clothing etc. <https://www.ato.gov.au/Business/GST/>

However, there are exceptions, such as basic foods (milk, bread, fruits and vegetables). International air and sea travel to/from Australia is GST-free, as is domestic air travel when purchased outside Australia by non-residents.

If you purchase new or second-hand goods with a total minimum value of $300 from any one supplier no more than 60 days before you leave Australia, under the Tourist Refund Scheme (TRS), you are entitled to a refund of any GST paid.

For more details, contact the Australian Customs Service on 1300 363 263 or 02 6275 6666 or visit the website www.customs.gov.au

SUPERANNUATION

Superannuation, or 'super', is money put aside by your employer over your working life for you to live on when you retire from work.

Super is important for you, because the more you save, the more money you will have for your retirement.

If your income exceeds AUD 450 per calendar month, you are eligible for Superannuation payments.

This applies whether you work casual, part-time or full-time hours, and if you are a temporary resident. You may also be eligible if you are a contractor who is paid primarily for labor, even if you have an Australian business number (ABN).

From 1 July 2014, your employer is required to pay a minimum of 11% of your ordinary time earnings into super. This is set to gradually rise over the coming years.

- www.hostplus.com.au
- www.unisuper.com.au

If you decide to leave Australia, you can withdraw all the funds that you have received in Superannuation. For more information, please refer to the Australian Taxation Office website: www.ato.gov.au/Individuals/Super

SHOPPING

Bargaining is not practiced at all in Australia, unless you're at a second-hand market or are buying a whole new wardrobe from one store, in which case it probably wouldn't hurt to ask for a small discount.

It is also worthy to note: tipping at restaurants is neither required nor expected by waitstaff in Australia.

In Australia, tipping is generally practiced when there has been exemplary service by the staff at the place you are dining in and is typically placed in a jar near to where your wait-staff would process your payment. Taxi drivers are always grateful if you leave the change.

The most popular places to do grocery shopping are:

- Coles
- Woolworths
- Aldi
- Local Markets
- IGA

COST OF LIVING IN AUSTRALIA

The Department of Home Affairs has financial requirements you must meet in order to receive a student visa for Australia.

Refer to the step-by-step Student Visa Subclass 500 application and Document Checklist Tool for details on how to provide the evidence required to cover the costs of your stay, including your travel, study and living expenses. With effect from October 1, 2023 the recommended 12-month living cost for a single student is AUD$24,505.

The Home Affairs website <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500#HowTo> covers in more detail how to work out how much money you might need to cover the costs of your stay in Australia as international student.

Course and study costs in Australia will depend on the education provider and level of study you choose.

The Insider Guides 'Cost of Living Calculator' is also a useful, practical tool to help estimate your cost of living in Australia www.insiderguides.com.au/cost-of-living-calculator/

ACCOMMODATION

There are plenty of accommodation options in Australia, and you can find the right place for you within your budget.

Homestay

You know that every family is different, even within your home country. So you know that it will take you a while to settle in and get used to your new home. Be patient, accepting, and try to have a sense of humour, even if you are tired or homesick.

Australian families generally do not employ household staff, although many hire a person to occasionally visit and clean, look after the garden, or do the laundry. Usually every family member is expected to help with jobs around the house, like cleaning, cooking, shopping, and tidying.

Rental Accommodation

Rental accommodation in Australia varies from one bedroom apartments to large houses, which are normally rented by a number of tenants living together as “housemates”. Finding suitable rental accommodation within a reasonable price range can take time, so it is a good idea to arrive at least a week before you start your studies to allow yourself time to find accommodation, settle in, and attend orientation at your institution.

Your institution can help you find rental accommodation, or show you how to search for it independently.

If you are renting, you should think about the size of the property you want to rent, the cost you can afford, how close you are to public transport, and whether you want to rent “furnished” or “unfurnished”. Renting an unfurnished place is cheaper, but you will need to provide your own furniture.

You may decide it is easier to look for an existing shared house where the current tenants are looking for a new housemate. People who are looking for house-mates often leave notices and advertisements in and around universities and other Institute campuses, but it is probably best to start with us, as we are able to help you find other students who are looking for housemates.

Arranging Accommodation

Students will need to make their own accommodation arrangements; however, we can help you if you are having difficulty finding a suitable option.

Australia is experiencing high population growth, generating high demand for housing. This housing boom has increased house prices and rents, as well as the availability of all types of housing.

Some accommodation options include but are not limited to:

- Hostels and Backpacker Accommodation – Approximately $150 per week
- Shared Accommodation – Approximately $200 per week
- Rental Accommodation – $300 and more per week for a 1-bedroom studio in the inner city suburbs of Melbourne

Recycling

Across Australia, governments, businesses and communities are grappling with how to waste less and recycle more:

- Recycling saves energy
- It reduces the use of raw materials
- Recycling results in less waste to landfill
- Recycling pays off: when you recycle, you are supporting local businesses and helping them to develop new technologies to recycle more materials

Albright Institute is working towards developing a Waste Management Plan in conjunction with the guidelines from the Government's Environmental Policies and Procedures.

Albright is committed to the practice of incorporating sustainability principles and practices into learning and teaching, research and operational activities. The plan is designed to encourage the reduction, reuse and recycling of materials, diverting waste from landfill.

Albright is rolling out a centralized two-bin system:

- Rubbish Bin
- Recycle Bin

Top Recycling Tips:

- Leave them loose: Recyclables need to be loose when placed in the bin – never in plastic bags.
- Remove food scraps: Rinse if necessary. Items should be empty before they go in the recycling bin, but don't need to be squeaky clean.
- Can your caps: Steel bottle caps can be collected in a steel can. When the can is full squash the top closed and place it in the recycle bin.
- Know what can and can't be recycled: Never put recyclable items in the garbage chute or bin.

Myki is Melbourne's ticket to travel on the city's trains, trams, and buses. It's a plastic smartcard with stored value which can be topped up and re-used again. Simply top up before your journey and touch on and touch off at a Myki reader as you travel.

You can buy and top up your Myki at over 800 retailers including all 7-Eleven stores, the ticket office window at Premium Stations and staffed Myki enabled V/Line stations, from a Myki machine (full fare Myki cards only) located at all train stations and major tram and bus interchanges, online, and by calling 1800 800 007.

When travelling entirely in the Free Tram Zone, you don't need to touch on or carry a Myki card.

Register your Myki so your balance is protected in case your Myki is lost or stolen. When you buy a registered Myki online or from the call Centre, you can choose to print your name on it. For information about the benefits of registering your myki, see Registering your Myki.

If you buy a Myki online or by calling 1800 800 007, but decide not to register it, you will still need to provide your postal details so the Myki can be sent to you. Your details will then be deleted within 30 days of the Myki being sent to you.

If you travel without a Myki, you may be penalized. Authorized Officers travel on Trains, Busses, and Trams, and fine travelers for not having a valid ticket.

More information about Myki Cards can be found on the Public Transport Victoria (PTV) website <https://www.ptv.vic.gov.au/>

The Australian Government wants all overseas students in Australia to have a safe, enjoyable and rewarding place to study. Australia's laws promote quality education and consumer protection for overseas students.

These laws are known as the ESOS framework, and they include the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000 and the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (National Code 2018).

PROTECTION FOR OVERSEAS STUDENTS

As an overseas student on a student visa, you must study with an education provider and in a course that can be found on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) at <https://cricos.education.gov.au>

CRICOS registration guarantees that the course and the education provider at which you study meet the high standards established for overseas students. Please check carefully that the details of your course, including its location, match the information on CRICOS.

YOUR RIGHTS

The ESOS framework sets out the standards that Australian education providers who offer education services to overseas students must obey. These standards cover a range of information you have a right to know and services that must be offered, including:

- Orientation and access to support services to help you study and adjust to life in Australia;
 - Who the contact officer or officers for overseas students are;
 - If you can apply for course credit;
 - When your enrollment can be deferred, suspended, or canceled;
 - What your provider's requirements are for satisfactory progress in the courses you study and what support is available if you are not progressing well;
 - If attendance for your course is monitored;
 - What the complaints and appeals process is;
 - One of the standards does not allow another education provider to enroll a student who wants to transfer to another course but has not completed six months of the final course of study they plan to undertake in Australia. If you want to transfer beforehand, you need your provider's permission;
 - If you are under 18, to ensure your safety, you will be granted a visa only if there are arrangements in place for your accommodation, support, and welfare, etc.
- The ESOS framework protects your rights, including:
- Your right to receive, before enrolling, current and accurate information about the courses, fees, modes of study and other information from your provider and your provider's agent.
 - Your right to sign a written agreement with your provider before or as you pay fees, setting out the services to be provided, fees payable and information about refunds of course money. You should keep a copy of your written agreement (the Letter of Offer).
 - Your right to get the education you paid for. The ESOS framework includes consumer protection that will allow you to receive a refund or to be placed in another course if your provider is unable to deliver your course.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- As an overseas student on a student visa, you have responsibilities to satisfy your student visa conditions;
- Maintain your Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the period of your stay;
- Meet the terms of the written agreement with your education provider;
- Inform your provider if you change your address and/or contact details (within 7 days of changes)
- Maintain satisfactory course progress;
- If attendance is recorded for your course, follow your provider's attendance policy;
- If you are under 18, maintain your approved accommodation, support, and general welfare arrangements.

DEFERRING, SUSPENDING OR CANCELLING A COURSE

Under the requirements of the ESOS Act and National Code, International students enrolled at Albright Institute are not permitted to defer commencement of their studies, or suspend their studies, except:

- on the grounds of illness evidenced by an Australian certified doctor's certificate stating that student is unable to attend classes.
- compelling or compassionate circumstances beyond the control of the student

Definition of possible CoE varia-

- Suspension: means for students who have commenced their course to put studies temporarily on hold.
- Deferment: means for students not yet commencing their course and postponing the start date
- Cancellation: to terminate or end your enrollment

Albright Institute may suspend or cancel a student's enrolment on the basis of misbehavior, the student's failure to pay their fees or for a breach of course progress and attendance requirements.

Albright Institute will inform the student of its intent to suspend or cancel their enrolment and advise them of their right to appeal the decision through its internal appeals process. The suspension or cancellation of a student's enrolment cannot take effect until the internal appeals process is completed.

Deferment, suspension and cancellation may affect a student's visa and Albright Institute must report on PRISMS as required under Section 19 ESOS Act where the enrolment is deferred, temporarily suspended or cancelled.

Albright Institute must report the student to the Department of Home Affairs via PRISMS, as not complying with visa conditions.

If you are willing to apply for deferment, suspension and cancellation (CoE variation), please fill out the Student Centralised Request form along with all the necessary evidence.

<https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/forms/>

NOTE: Please note the following before requesting for a CoE variation.

1. There will be a charge of $200.00 administration fee for 2nd and subsequent deferment of start date of the course.
2. There will be a charge of $300.00 administration fee for 2nd and subsequent suspension of studies during the enrolment of the course.
3. Processing time for all CoE variations can be found from the Deferral, Suspension, Cancellation and Non-commencement of Student Enrolment Policy & Procedure - <https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/forms-and-policies/>
4. Albright Institute will not require you to follow the original payment plan if you have a deferral or suspensions request approved.
5. Upon the approval of your deferral or suspension request, a new Letter of Offer will be generated for you. The new Letter of Offer will include a new payment plan. This means that the remaining installments will be adjusted to match the duration of the enrollment. You are obliged to follow this new payment plan.

TUITION FEES AND PAYMENTS

At the time of application, Albright Institute provides all its prospective students with a Letter of Offer, outlining all the fees and charges applicable to the student's entire enrolment duration.

This includes the total upfront payment required, and a payment plan for the payment of the rest of the fees for the duration of the enrolment. The Letter of Offer will include all tuition fees and all non-tuition fees.

All the students are required to pay the fees and charges as outlined on the Letter of Offer, and Albright Institute is responsible for providing all services related to the courses included in the Letter of Offer.

The Letter of Offer will act as the financial written agreement between the student and Albright Institute and, by signing it, the student accepts the responsibility of meeting all the outlined financial commitments and paying all fees by the due date.

By signing the Letter of Offer, students also agree to all terms and conditions and to follow the policies and procedures of Albright Institute.

Initial deposit for the CoE

If the total upfront fees are not paid in full and a proof of payment is not presented, Albright Institute will not finalize your enrolment.

Payment must have reached the Albright Institute bank account for the transaction to be considered complete:

- If you make a payment to Albright Institute from an account in Australia and provide proof of the transfer, Albright Institute may at its discretion proceed with the enrolment and issue a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) prior to the money being received.
- If you are paying from an overseas bank account, please take into consideration processing times, currency exchange rates and international transaction fees.

Material fees

ELICOS course fees do not include the cost of resources and materials, for example textbooks, PowerPoint handouts, printouts, etc.

Additional fees for the cost of materials will be charged. The total material fee payable for the duration of the course will be displayed in the Letter of Offer, under the title "Material fee". Material fees are payable at the time of admission.

For some VET courses VET course fees include the cost of resource materials. For some trade courses the material fee will be charged separately and will be mentioned in the letter of offer and the student acceptance agreement.

The latest non-tuition fees and charges will be available on our official website
<https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/forms-and-policies/>

- 4) In case where the student has no Australian bank account, or automatic payments cannot be set up on student's bank account due to any reason, payments could be processed using a valid credit card, the details of which should also be provided to Albright Institute in such cases.
- 5) The student is advised that Albright Institute will charge the due payment to the credit card in case the direct debit fails.

LATE PAYMENTS OR MISSED FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS

Warning letters and notifications

Albright Institute sends reminders (text messages and emails) regarding upcoming payment instalments. It is important that you take these reminders seriously and do not ignore them:

- Please ensure all payments are made by the due date;
- Albright Bank Account details and Payment plan can be found on your Letter of Offer (page N2 and N4);
- When making a payment, please ensure you include your student ID number in the reference section;
- 2 days after due date: if a payment becomes two business days overdue and no payment has been received by Albright Institute, a first warning letter will be issued and sent to your email account. Albright Institute may also choose to remind you of the overdue fees by phone calls and text messages;
- 4 days after due date: should a payment not be received by Albright Institute within two business days of the first warning letter, a second warning letter will be issued to and sent to your email account
- 6 days after due date: If no payment is received, Albright Institute will issue an Intention to Report (ITR) letter within two business days after the second warning letter, should the student have not made a payment;

An ITR letter is extremely serious and, if you do not resolve the issue, it can affect your student visa. Once an ITR letter is issued, you will have 20 working days to access Albright Institute's appeals processes or to clear the payment in full.

If you appeal the overdue payment, and the outcome is in your favor, Albright Institute will re-arrange the payment plan for you and issue a new Letter of Offer. Albright Institute will not proceed with reporting you based on default of non-payment of fees.

If the appeals process results in an outcome in favor of Albright Institute, you will be given two days to make the outstanding payment. If the payment is not made within the time allowed, Albright Institute will proceed with cancelling your CoE and reporting you via the Provider Registration and International Student Management System (PRISMS) for "student default – non-payment of fees". PRISMS is directly accessible by the Department of Home Affairs, and a report can affect your student visa.

Once a CoE is canceled due to "student default - non-payment of fees", Albright Institute will not release you unless all the overdue fees are paid. This may prevent you from enrolling in a course at another Australian college.

If you have received ITR letter and you make the overdue payment within the 20 working days allowed for appeal, Albright Institute will consider this when deciding whether to report you through PRISMS.

Late payment of Fees will incur a penalty on the fee instalment owed to Albright Institute referred in the Payment Agreement.

Overdue Tuition Fee Charges
Business days	Charges
1 to 5 days	$220.00
6 to 10 days	$440.00
11 to 20 days	$880.00
20 + days	$1,440.00

Financial hardship and payment extensions

If you are facing financial hardship, please speak to our student services (Front Desk) or Accounts department. We might be able to give you a more flexible payment plan or change to due date (give a short payment extension).

Relevant evidence of financial hardship will be requested prior to approving an extension.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact our Accounts department over the phone 1300 189 154 or at accountsupport@albrightinstitute.edu.au

- That you will not receive a certificate, Testamur, statement of attainment, end of course report, or any other academic documents until the fees are paid in full.
- If you are studying a package of courses and you have fees overdue from one course, you will not be allowed to commence attending classes for the following course until those fees are paid in full.

Legally we are obligated to provide your personal information to the Commonwealth including the TPS, or state or territory agencies, in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988, and the Department of Home Affairs if there are changes to the student's enrolment or unsatisfactory attendance or progress in the course of study.

TIMETABLE AND BREAKS

International students in Australia study 20 hours per week (full-time enrolment). Prior to the commencement of your studies, you will be provided with a timetable relevant to your course. Typical timetable includes days and timings of the class, teacher/trainer's contact details, and breaks schedule. Once you receive the Timetable, please ensure to start attending classes.

Students must inform Albright Student Services (Front Desk) of their intention to change the timetable (class timings). Work commitments are not considered as compassionate or compelling circumstances for not attending your classes.

You will be required to fill out the "Centralised Student Request form" no later than Wednesday of the week prior to change.

Once your request is processed, you will receive an email confirmation (along with the new schedule).

NOTE: Change of timetable is not guaranteed and is subject to availability.

Term Break Letter

International students in Australia on a valid student visa can work for up to 24 hours per week while school is in session.

You may choose to work more hours only when your course is not in progress (during recognized/ authorized school vacations).

If you require a Holiday confirmation letter, please speak to Student Services (Front Desk) or request via Centralised Student Request Form.

ELICOS ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT

As an International Student with student visa you are required:

- Maintain attendance of 80% or above at all times.
- Attendance will be counted ONLY when the student is present for the entire duration of the scheduled class.
- The student CAN NOT miss more than two consecutive classes without giving notice.
- The student CAN NOT miss more than five consecutive classes without obtaining approval.
- The student is required to provide reasons for absences or low attendance within 5 days.

ELICOS COURSE PROGRESS REQUIREMENTS

-Satisfactory and unsatisfactory course progress including a process for determining the point at which the student has failed to meet course progress requirements is clearly defined in the ELICOS course curriculum.

-Course progress requirements are defined in relation to study periods and include:

- (a)Satisfactory completion of summative and formative assessment tasks.
- (b)Attendance requirements of at least 80% for ELICOS students.

-Requirements are designed to uphold the academic integrity of the registered course with consideration to the length of the study period and the number of units/subjects and assessment requirements of the course.

-Students are advised of course progress requirements in course information provided prior to enrolment and in their course orientation.

-Students who do not meet course progress and attendance requirements are at risk of having their visas cancelled.

-Where requirements are not met, Albright Institute's course progress and attendance monitoring procedures will be followed.

-Albright Institute uses a range of methods to monitor course progress including review of assessment tasks, participation in training activities, attendance and other measures of academic progress as defined in the procedures.

-All Test records of the student's course progress are kept on file.

- Students must also ensure that they abide by academic conduct requirements to ensure that they can complete their course in the expected duration.

- To progress to the next level, the student is required to:

- (a)Complete 10 weeks of study at the current level.
- (b)Achieve a 65% or above score in the Skills Test.
- (c)Meet the attendance requirement.

INTERVENTION STRATEGY

- Albright Institute ensures that it identifies, notifies and assists students where there is evidence that the student is at risk of not meeting course progress requirements.

- For students at risk of not meeting course progress requirements, an Individual intervention plan will be developed based on the appropriate intervention strategy identified.

- An intervention plan will include an interview with the ELICOS Coordinator and may include one or more of the following strategies:

(a) Advising students on the suitability of the course in which they are enrolled and possible alternatives;

(b) Advising students of opportunities for reassessment; and

(c) Advising students of assistance that Albright Institute can provide such as receiving English language support;

(d) Reviewing learning materials with the student and providing information to students in a context that they can understand;

(e) Providing extra time to complete tasks;

(f) Providing access to supplementary or modified materials;

(g) Providing supplementary exercises to assist understanding;

(h) Attending study clubs;

(i) Attending counselling;

(j) Receiving assistance with personal issues which are influencing progress;

(k) Referral to external organizations where Albright Institute is unable to address the identified learning or academic issues;

(l) Being placed in a suitable alternative course; or

(m) A combination of the above and a reduction in course load.

- Absences without Notice:

(a) More than 2 consecutive days missed without prior notice will require an explanation via email.

(b) Missing 5 consecutive days without notice or approval, combined with a failure to cooperate with the student support team, will initiate an enrolment cancellation notice. For international students, this action may result in the cancellation of their CoE (Confirmation of Enrolment).

WARNING LETTERS

- Albright will issue a First Warning letter when the projected overall attendance is calculated at under 90% (between 89% to 85%) and the course progress is unsatisfactory.
- Albright will issue a Second Warning letter when the projected overall attendance is calculated at under 85% (between 84% to 80%) and the student continues to fail to demonstrate satisfactory course progress.
- Albright will issue an Intention to Report (ITR) [Unsatisfactory Attendance and unsatisfactory course progress Notification] letter when the projected overall attendance is calculated at under 80% (between 79% to 70%).
- All warning letters are sent to the student's email address as well as being made available at the school.

Refer to the ELICOS Student Journey Policy and Procedure for the detailed Intervention Strategy and procedure. <https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/forms-and-policies/>

VET COURSE PROGRESS

As a student enrolled in any of the Vocational Education and Training (VET) courses in Australia, you will have to comply with certain course progress requirements.

Albright Institute will use two levels monitoring system for your course progress evaluation:

- Informal: at the end of each unit
- Formal: at the end of each study period (term)

Satisfactory course progress is defined as a student successfully completing all required subjects / units of competency in their program in order to achieve the qualification within the expected duration specified on their CoE.

Unsatisfactory course progress is defined as not successfully completing or demonstrating competency in at least 50% of the subjects/units of competency undertaken in that term (study period) or failing the same unit 3 times.

A student who is identified as falling behind in successful assignment completion will be managed via a range of intervention strategies.

At the beginning of your course and after that by request, you will be provided with a “VET Study Plan” which outlines the course requirements, term breaks, units schedule and submission due dates (for each study period) to help you keep track of your studies.

For more information, please refer to “VET Course Progress Monitoring Policy”
<https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/forms-and-policies/>

Study Plans

Students are required to undertake 20 hours’ study per week during terms. Albright courses are structured to ensure the delivery and assessment process is both rigorous and relevant.

The Timetable and a VET Study Plan that you receive after induction, will include details of the units to be studied, unit start dates, and assessment submission dates.

Each course has a set of units that you need to complete in order to achieve full qualification. The number of units varies based on the course.

Each unit has a separate assessment that consists of 2-4 tasks: case studies, written exercises, reports, presentations, role-plays, group and individual activities.

To successfully complete the course and receive your certificate, you must be deemed competent in all the units.

VET students can also access the days and times for their lecture and support day classes by visiting our Learning Management System (LMS) - <https://albrightinstitute.ai-one.io/>

Assessment Requirements

Students are assessed in a variety of ways. The selection of appropriate assessment(s) instruments is guided by the requirements of the Unit of Competency:

- ✔ Written Exercises: Written exercises may be open or closed book exercises, which may involve multiple choice questions, short answer questions, case studies, and reports.
- ✔ Case Study / Written Report: Case studies and reports require the student to analyze, problem solve and apply their learning from the course to the situation described. They require the student to demonstrate appropriate levels of research and understanding.

- ✓ Presentations / Role Plays: Assessment tasks may involve group work and presentations of information as a method of assessing teamwork and communication skills.
- ✓ Portfolio: A Portfolio usually contains a number of documents, gathered over a period of time, displaying evidence of the ability to perform a number of practical skills or tasks.

Assessment Outcomes

The evidence students submit will be assessed and they will be given written and verbal feedback.

Each individual assessment task will be marked as either Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory. A mark of Competent or Not Yet Competent will be given for the whole unit. To pass a unit, you need to complete all the given assessments and obtain a Competent “C” grade in each of the assessment tasks. If the student is assessed as Not Competent, they will be given some suggestions for improvement and asked to resubmit their material and/or redo their assessment.

If the student doesn't agree with the assessment result or thinks that the assessment process is not valid, or disagrees with the decision once it is made, or believe that they have been treated unfairly, they can appeal.

Re-Enrollments after 3 NYCs (Per Unit)

If the student fails to achieve competency by the end date of a unit, or following 3 submissions of the assessment tasks, the student will be required to re-enrol. In this case, the student must re-enrol and study the unit and achieve competency in the assessments prior to being eligible for a testamur/certificate.

Albright Institute will charge a fee of $300 for the re-enrolment in each unit. A new Letter of Offer and extended CoE will be issued if re-enrolment changes the duration of your course.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Information, ideas etc. quoted or paraphrased from another source, must be acknowledged with “quotation marks” around the relevant words / sentences or ideas and cited at the end of the document.

Sources of information, ideas, etc. must be provided in alphabetical order by author's surname (including author's full name, name of document/ book/ internet etc. and year and place of publishing) or may be included in brackets in the text.

Students who assist others to have access to their assignment material will be deemed EQUALLY guilty of plagiarism.

VET COURSE MONITORING

Unit Due Dates (Informal Monitoring)

Albright VET students are encouraged to submit assessments on time.

At the end of each unit, the trainer will determine whether the student has submitted all the necessary documents / tasks for evaluation. The due date will be the final day of study for the unit of competency.

Trainers usually take up to 2-3 weeks to grade assessments. Once the unit is graded, the student will receive official feedback from the trainer:

- If the submission is successful, student will be marked Competent (COMP).
- If the unit submission has not taken place, the trainer will determine the reasons for non-submission. The trainer may permit up to one week of assessment submission extension, but no more. One week is the maximum extension allowable.
- If the unit is marked NYC (Not Yet Competent), the student will have a chance for two re-submissions.
- Any student who has not been deemed to have satisfactorily completed the unit, even if they have used all 3 submissions, will be deemed not competent (FAIL) and the unit will be closed. After that Student may be offered reenrolment.

Consequences of Non-Progression (Formal Monitoring)

Formal monitoring takes place at the end of each study period.

A study period is a block of time, which may contain multiple units of competency, in which the student is required to undertake study. Every course at Albright is divided into at least four study periods, for example:

Course Duration (CoE)	Study Period Length	Study Periods in Course
12-months	10 weeks	4 study periods
2-years	20 weeks	8 study periods

Albright uses a traffic light system to categorize international VET students in terms of course progress monitoring. The system is:

- Green – A green student is on track and is achieving satisfactory course progress.
- Yellow – A yellow student is at risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress and may require intervention.
- Red – A red student is not achieving satisfactory course progress and is at risk of not completing their course.

Students who become yellow or red, according to the traffic light system mentioned above, will experience some consequences:

- Students who are yellow will receive warning letters. After receiving this letter, you are required to attend an intervention session with Albright staff to identify the reasons for this problem.
- A lack of course progress in the second consecutive study period will result in receiving a red status and an “Intention to Report” letter.

Students may contact the Head of VET/VET Academic Manager/Coordinator and attempt to find a resolution. This may involve enrolling in make-up classes, mandatory attendance, or re-starting the course.

When you receive an “Intention to Report” (ITR) email, you are required to provide evidence of compelling circumstances for Albright Institute not to report you to the Department of Home Affairs. You will have 20 business days to appeal our decision of “Intention to Report” (ITR).

If Albright Institute is not satisfied with the evidence provided, the student gets reported for non-progress (to the Department of Home Affairs and the Department of Education, Skills and Employment) and the CoE gets cancelled via PRISMS.

For more information, please refer to “VET Course Progress Monitoring Policy”
<https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/forms-and-policies/>

Academic Support

Please speak to your trainer if you think you are struggling with your studies or submission of assessments.

You may be eligible to take part in the Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) Support classes which Albright Institute has in place to help you complete the course smoothly and easily.

To access these support services, all you need to do is to speak to your trainer, VET Course Coordinator, or one of our student support officers at the reception or join the VET Student Support Session online.

VET COURSES ATTENDANCE

On top of the course progress, Albright Institute will be recording your attendance. It will be used as a key input to the process for determining the cause of non-progression.

It is important to attend a minimum of 80% of your scheduled classes (Australian student visa requirement). It will also boost your academic knowledge and help you to get the most benefit from your course.

NOTE: Please note that Albright Institute will not report VET students based on attendance, however, the data will be made available to the Department of Home Affairs, when required.

In some cases, particularly where non-progression appears to be driven by nonattendance in class, the Academic team may mandate a minimum level of attendance for a specific student who has become yellow or red. This decision must be made by the Academic Manager, VET, and must be documented in the student file. The student must be notified in writing. If the student fails to achieve the mandatory level of attendance in the next study period, they may be considered to have failed to achieve satisfactory progress.

TIMETABLE & COURSE CALENDER

We are currently running morning, evening and weekend classes for VET students.

NOTE: Albright Institute has 4 campuses on National level. VET courses may have a different timetable (depending on location). For more information, please visit our official website <https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/> or contact Front Desk on 1300 189 154.

Students are advised that in order to achieve their ultimate scores, skills, and competencies, it is essential for them to undertake self-study at home in addition to class hours spent. The class hours are 2 days of 8 hours each, and the self-study is a minimum of 4 hours per week, these are the required 20 hours per week.

For all VET students, the course duration includes study and term breaks. The Course Calendar is available on our official website <https://albrightinstitute.edu.au/>

Additional breaks will be Australian and State public holidays and official campus closure times.

Generally, there are no classes scheduled for the duration of the term break. This is a time to catch up with delayed submissions or complete re-submissions as well as to catch up with your trainer if you require assistance with any academic matters. If none of this applies to you, you will be able to take a break from your studies.

Change of class request (VET)

Students must inform Albright Student Services (Front Desk) of their intention to change the timetable (class timings).

You will be required to fill out the "Centralised Student Request Form" no later than Wednesday of the week prior to change.

If you chose a certain timetable (batch), you will not be allowed to switch between classes during the study week. Changes of timetable are allowed at the beginning of a new unit and with the condition of having submitted all the previous assessments. Once your request is processed, you will receive an email confirmation (along with the new schedule).

NOTE: Change of timetable is not guaranteed and is subject to availability.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Albright Institute has in place systems to offer Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) to assess an individual's formal, non-formal and informal learning to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards for entry to, and/or partial or total completion of, a VET qualification.

If you wish to apply for RPL, please contact our enrolment department by sending an email to enrol@albrightinstitute.edu.au

CREDIT TRANSFERS (CT)

Credit Transfers are the recognition of learning achieved through formal education and training. Under the VET Quality Framework, qualifications and statements of attainment issued by any RTO are to be accepted and recognised by all other RTOs. National recognition allows a student to be awarded a unit of competency based on successful completion of the unit, which has been previously awarded.

If you wish to apply for Credit Transfers, please contact our Enrolment department by sending an email to enrol@albrightinstitute.edu.au You will be required to submit a full qualification or a Statement of Attainment in support of your request.

Statements of attainment or qualifications should be in the correct format as outlined in the Australian Qualifications Framework. The applicant is required to submit copies only which are certified as true copies of the original by a Justice of the Peace (or equivalent).

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE VET COURSE

Albright Institute aims to issue all the graduation documentation within 30 calendar days of a learner being assessed as meeting the requirements of their training program, providing all agreed tuition fees have been paid:

- At the completion of the program, students who showed satisfactory course progress, attended classes regularly and participated in class activities actively are awarded a Certificate of Completion;
- If students do not demonstrate satisfactory results, attendance and interest in learning, and/or have outstanding fees, they may not be eligible for a graduation certificate
- If you demonstrate competency only in a few units, you will be entitled for a Statement of Attainment;
- If you have zero progress, you are entitled only for a Confirmation of enrollment letter.

LANGUAGE, LITERACY & NUMERACY (LLN) TEST FOR (VET) COURSES

All students who wish to enroll at Albright Institute of Business and Language for VET courses, will have to demonstrate their English language level.

LLN Test is a mandatory requirement for every student at Albright Institute.

LLN needs will be identified either in pre-enrolment assessment of the student and /or during student orientation. If the student still does not satisfy the required level in language, literacy and Numeracy skills, then the student will be provided additional support in the skills gap.

The student will be required to attend the scheduled sessions for Language, Literacy and Numeracy respectively. These sessions will be organized by Albright Institute for 4 hours per week.

UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER (USI) NUMBER

You are required to provide Albright Institute of Business and Language with your Unique Student Identifier (USI). A USI is your individual education number for your studies in Australia. It also gives you an online record of your VET training undertaken in Australia.

If you are studying nationally recognised training in Australia, you will be required to have a USI. Without one, you can't get Commonwealth financial assistance or your qualification or statement of attainment.

If you do not have one, you must either apply for it online or authorise Albright Institute of Business and Language to create one on your behalf. For more information, please visit <https://www.usi.gov.au/>

CENSUS DATE

Every intake has a census date. The census date is the date that a student's enrolment is considered finalised. All students are expected to enroll within 2 weeks from course commencement (start date of studies as per your CoE).

If you DO NOT attend scheduled orientation (do not commence your course) within 14 days from CoE start date, your enrolment will be cancelled.

Students who do not commence on the published start date and commence by the default date will be registered and may undergo individual orientation.
