

Are you someone with a bright mind, unstoppable curiosity, and a love for public speaking?
Do you want to inspire others with your ideas and showcase your talent on a stage modeled after the iconic TED Talk?

WE ARE LOOKING FOR FUTURE LEADERS

Bright Talks is a platform for passionate students—those with bright minds, deep knowledge, and a desire to share what matters most to them. It's for those who are intrigued by the power of public speaking and eager to inspire others with their insights.

Modeled after the iconic TED Talk, Bright Talks give these future leaders a stage to bring their ideas to life, showcasing their expertise and passions through impactful storytelling.

HOW TO APPLY?

Fill out the form below to tell us about yourself and upload a 2-minute video presentation showcasing your passion. Apply today to take your first step towards inspiring others!

SELECTION PROCESS

Our executives will shortlist 16 bright students, four from each state, who demonstrate a true passion for public speaking.

Those selected will receive a

100% Scholarship

to undergo an inspirational public speaking training workshop from the University of Sydney's Corporate Training Wing, led by an industry expert facilitator, Erin O'Dwyer.

THE WORKSHOP

'Presentation Skills: Become an Authentic Public Speaker'

offers practical guidance on finding an authentic voice, engaging audiences, and crafting well-structured presentations. Participants will build confidence, overcome nerves, and use storytelling techniques to deliver impactful presentations.

- Every participant receives a University of Sydney statement of completion.

THE GRAND STAGE

Once trained, you get to present your ideas to a hybrid audience from your own campus in front of your classmates, invited friends and family, plus live telecasted to all other states, showcasing your brilliance and passion.

PRIZE

The winner will receive $1,000 in Cash Award and the prestigious crest title of BrightTalk Champion 2024.
